This week at School

Happy Lunar New Year! Kung Hei Fat Choi! Each class worked together this week to create their very own dragon head just like the ones at the Lunar New Year parade. We danced with it in the hall and used instruments to keep to a beat. We also completed races through moving in different ways and seeing who came first and last like in The Great Race. One of the parents very kindly came into school to personally teach us more about Lunar New Year and even gave us handwritten blessings to take home!

Ideas for Home

Introduce the word 'character' at home. Can your child point out the characters in a story or name their favourite character in a tv show?
